授業の目標 (Course Objectives)

The course aims to provide students with a basic understanding of tourism, paying special attention to the development and socio-cultural, economic and environmental impacts of tourism.

At the end of the course, students will develop a basic understanding of tourism, and will also be able to analyze contemporary tourist phenomena and relate them academically to their personal touristic experiences.

授業の内容 (Course Contents)

The course will consist of five parts: a first part (week 1 to 3) setting the context of the course by exploring the basic concepts of tourism studies; a second part (week 4 & 5) mapping the historical background of modern tourism; a third (week 6 to 9) examining the impacts of tourism; a fourth (week 10 to 12) focusing the challenges and future development of tourism; and a final part (week 13 & 14) evaluating students' understandings of the course through group projects.

This will be a student-centered, interactive course with in-class discussions, group/pair study, and projects. The course is designed to give students the opportunities to share their personal experiences and views with the class. Students will be encouraged to relate the course contents to the experience of their own society/community through papers and projects. Audio-visual materials and Internet resources will be used to enrich the learning experience.
